Summer Break

Please note we'll be taking a short break in sending the Friday Round Up, there will be no email in the last two weeks of August. We will still email you with any important updates.

---

An independent panel set up to review events surrounding the retirement of the former Bishop of Monmouth, Richard Pain, has now completed its report.

In a statement, the Bench of Bishops and the Representative Body, which commissioned the Monmouth Enquiry and Review, thanked the panel for their work and said a period of consultation was now underway which was expected to take until the autumn.

The panel, which began its work in May 2020, was chaired by Bishop Graham James and the other members were Lucinda Herklots and Patricia Russell. Bishop Richard retired in May 2019 due to ill health. He had been Bishop of Monmouth since 2013.

Statement

Dear Friends,

We are writing to inform you that the Reviewers, commissioned by the Bench of Bishops and Representative Body to consider the matters which occurred prior to Bishop Richard Pain's retirement, have now completed their work. Mr James Turner, Chairman of the Representative Body and I are immensely grateful to them for their meticulous work and considered judgements.

It is important that we now agree the next steps and we are therefore consulting those most closely associated with these events in order to determine what these should be. We expect to make progress quickly over the summer period and to complete our work in the autumn. We are grateful to Bishop Cherry with whom we are working closely and continue to hold the diocese in our prayers following its recent sadness and bereavement.

+Andrew Bangor, on behalf of the Bench of Bishops
Mr James Turner, chair of the Representative Body

Bishop Cherry has welcomed the draft statement.

She says, “This draft statement gives us a sense of where the review is up to and when we, as a diocese, can expect to receive details of the report’s findings. This will enable some further and much needed healing to take place following what was an extraordinarily difficult and painful time in the life of our diocese.”

Flourish

Many of you will have already watched our new monthly magazine-style video 'Flourish' – some of you may have even had a starring role!!

For those who haven't, you can catch up the previous editions here:

July - <https://youtu.be/00kllTs2oMg>

June - <https://youtu.be/K7i9VezEfT8>

May - <https://youtu.be/9qWENSZXcyE>

Based on viewing figures and social media shares it looks like 'Flourish' could develop and become a great way of communicating and sharing news. However, it could also be a hub of resource and content which can be shared. So, along with the complete film, we will also chapterise the film into 'bitesize' films which we/you can share on social media. These 'bitesize' films will be available to Ministry Areas to use as they wish. There will also be written transcripts which can be printed out and displayed on notice boards or used as content for parish magazines etc.

The theme list for the next few months is:

- September – Eco, harvest and creationtide
- October – conference/centenary
- November – schools
- December – Bishop's Christmas message

We are always looking for people to contribute to these films (as the most popular are those which contain lots of faces!!) so your input is/and will be invaluable.

We are currently looking for ideas for our September edition – so it would be great if you could get in touch with your suggestions. You don't have to be a Spielberg with a video camera as we can help with filming etc – so please don't let that put you off!

For more information about Flourish or any aspect of Diocesan Communication please contact Debra Goddard (debragoddard@cinw.org.uk 07392319065)
