

Intercessions for Vocations Sunday

We pray for the flourishing of God's gifts to his Church, saying:

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Loving Father we thank you that you have chosen everyone of us to participate in your mission to reconcile all of creation back to you. Help us to listen and hear how you would like us to serve.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Loving Father help us to see that there is no ordinary ministry. Whether you call us to clear the tables or serve as Bishop all vocations are extraordinary because it is the service of drawing others into the kingdom.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those who are discerning their vocation. May they come to see clearly and help us as a community of faith help them to find their path.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those who you have called to serve their vocation in the world today. Grant them your wisdom to be Christ to others in the place you have called them and to always be ready to speak of the source of their hope to any who asks.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those who you have called to serve in our local churches, both in licensed lay ministries and those who serve behind the scenes and often unrecognised service.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those you have called to serve in monastic and religious communities. Called to live in community to support the whole Church through prayer and service.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those you have called to serve as pioneers, with gifts to innovate and meet the needs of those beyond traditional expressions of church.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those you have called to serve in ordained ministry as deacons, priests and bishops. Imbue them with your wisdom as they support all your children to exercise their vocations as heralds of your kingdom and proclaimers of your gospel.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow.

Bless those who are uncertain of their gifts
and those who are powerless in this world's eyes, that they may be made strong in your gift of the Holy Spirit.

Saviour, we hear your call.

Help us to follow

and make us one in heart and mind
to serve you with joy for ever. Amen.
